Everything has its season
Everything has its time
Show me a reason and I'll soon show
you a rhyme
Cats fit on the windowsill
Children fit in the snow
Why do I feel I don't fit in anywhere
I go ?
Every man has his daydreams
every man has his goal people like the war dreams have
of sticking to the soul
thunderclouds have their lightning nightingales have their song and don't you see I want my life to be something more than long

MARY BALDWIN COLLEGE—BLUESTOCKING 1977

My days are brighter than morning air,
Evergreen pine and autumn blue,
But all my days were twice as fair,
If I could share my days with you.

And time weaves ribbons of memory
To sweeten life when youth is through
But I would need no memories there,
If I could share life
With you.

MARTHA S. GRAFTON LIBRARY

Surrounded by this gathering of mountains,
we come,
people who gather
with so much to offer.
by chance thrown together,
given a hundred years of tradition
and the opportunity to sculpt our ideal self-we,
sometimes divided, always different
  still collectively a whole,
and generality in the face of time—muddle along.
making the tradition our own,
  adding ourselves to it,
perpetuating and changing it,
living this time here given us.

Speculation arises as the day draws near. Only the Sophomores however, know when it will be. Finally one day, during an uninteresting dinner, the news is broken amidst whistles and cheers, as members of the Sophomore class, dressed as Apples, run wildly about proclaiming that tomorrow is "APPLE DAY!!!"

The following day will be one filled with fun, games, apple cider and candied apples. The philosophy paper can now wait; and anyway, I hadn't really studied for calculus.

So, for a nice break,

Hats off to the Class of 1979!

When I grow old, if I've accomplished nothing else in my life than merely existing, then may I be received into such a death as befits a traitor —a traitor not only to God and life, but to self.

"I DO WANT MY LIFE TO BE SOMETHING MORE THAN LONG."

And that means not waiting for life to come to me, but rather taking that first hard step and slowly but surely reaching out and grasping all that life has to offer, and in turn dedicating myself to it.

1. ". . . you wanna go to a party at Madison tonight?"
2. "yea, I've hard that line before"
3. "Did someone say, Mary Baldwin, Mary Baldwin?"

"I want to be able to fit in everywhere I go" because I am a part of everyone and everything, just as they are a part of me. And those whose live's I touch will always have a little bit of me in them which will carry on when my days are passed.

So don't ask me where I'm going, I'm not sure myself. All that I know is that I will keep moving on, and without fear, because where I have tread so far has been worth it, for I have traveled well.

IRVING

Only her smiles and laughter, and that special something about her that she brought to those she touched will be remembered—with love.

What I see ahead is a new dawn, for everyday of the rest of my life, and when I reach my "niche" in life, I'll know. Therefore, I commit myself right now to my God, to life, to love, and most of all to beginnings. Beginnings of a life that as I grow older, I still will be able to hold my head up high and say . . . .

"No, I am not afraid of tomorrow because I have lived all of my todays well."

Picking a theme for a yearbook is an important decision to make. It requires a subject that encompasses the beliefs, emotions, and universality that can touch and be understood by all. The Broadway Show "Pippin" was all of these things to us-and more. It gave us all inspiration and motivation for all of our creative endeavors and for this we are grateful, as we now pass it on to others.

A Promise For The Future

So many men seem destined to settle for something small but i won't rest until i know i have it all so don't ask where i'm going but listen when i'm gone
and far away you'll hear me
singing softly to the dawn:
Rivers belong where they can ramble
eagles belong where they can fly i've got to be where my spirit
can run free
got to find my corner of the sky.
